Same as the First Year of the College Preparatory Course.

SECOND YEAR.
LATIN—Grammar, Reader, Composition (Harkness).
MATHEMATICS—Arithmetic (Sanford).
SCIENCE—Elementary Physics (Steele); Elementary Physiology (Dalton).
HISTORY—General (Anderson).
BOOK-KEEPING—Bryant and Stratton.
TEACHING—Theory and Practice (Page).

Theological Course.

The conditions of admission to this course are membership in some evangelical church or other satisfactory evidence of piety; a purpose to prepare for the Christian ministry, and such intellectual attainments as promise to give success in these studies, and usefulness in the work.
The course of studies occupies three years, and is arranged in the following order:

JUNIOR YEAR.

Biblical Geography and Sacred Antiquities (Barrows); New Testament History (Smith); Life of Christ; Outlines of Theology.

MIDDLE YEAR.

Old Testament History (Smith); Christian Evidences; Natural and Revealed Theology; Church History.

SENIOR YEAR.

History of Doctrines; Pastoral Theology; Homiletics.

The careful reading and study of the Scriptures will be kept up through the course, and the study of the original languages so far as practicable. The preparation of dissertations upon special topics, and of plans of sermons will be frequently required. Students will be at liberty to take such studies in other courses as seem best fitted to supplement these studies, and to make up for previous deficiency, so far as can be done without neglecting the course.

Students in this course participate in the regular Rhetorical exercises of the College department, and will also have special opportunities for instruction and practice in speaking and composition.

It is expected that students will engage in some form of Mission labor, for which there is, in the vicinity, abundant opportunity, and after the middle of the course they will be advised and aided in securing places to preach.

It is desired that all the advantages of this Institution may be open to members of all Christian denominations so that any, who desire, may secure a thorough and practical preparation for the work of the ministry.

Higher Normal Course.

The requirements for admission to this course are the same as for the College Preparatory Course.

A certificate of graduation will be given to those who complete this course.

EVIDENCES OF CHRISTIANITY—Hopkins.
MATHEMATICS—Algebra (Loomis); Plane Geometry (Loomis).

Normal Course.

This course consists of the ordinary Grammar-School branches and the studies of the first two years of the Higher Normal Course.

No examination for admission is required, but pupils will be classed according to their attainments.

This course is formed to meet the immediate demand for teachers throughout the State. A certificate of graduation will be given to those who complete this course.

Rhetorical exercises and weekly Bible lessons are required throughout all the courses.
MEMBERSHIP.

For membership in the Institution a person must have a good moral character, and must sign a pledge to abstain from the use of all intoxicating drinks and tobacco in every form, while a member of the school.

Pupils from other schools must present certificates of honorable dismissal.

Applications for admission should be made at least a month before the beginning of the school year.

Pupils should enter the first day of the school year that they may be immediately classified and thus lose no time. Students in regular classes lose their membership when absent any part of the year. Those pursuing a regular course are held amenable to the authority of the school during vacation, as well as during term time.

Those who have not a fixed purpose to improve their time, and an earnest desire to fit themselves for usefulness, should not seek admission, as the presence of such is not tolerated.

STUDENT AID.

Several students have been aided during past years by the Peabody Fund, and contributions from the friends of popular education. It is expected that this help will be continued.

There are special funds available for those proposing to enter upon the Theological Course, provided they are able to meet the conditions required for membership in that course.

The only permanent fund is the “Plainfield Scholarship” of three hundred dollars.

Persons should not come to the school hoping to receive aid until they have applied for it and received a favorable answer. Those applying should state their pecuniary circumstances, their advancement... in their studies, and, as far as possible, what pursuit they intend to follow.
It is expected that those who are aided will, when able, return the amount to aid others.

MUSIC.
Instruction is given in both vocal and instrumental music.

GRAVES LIBRARY.
By the liberality of R. R. Graves, Esq., of New York, and a few other friends, the library now contains between two and three thousand volumes. Mr. Graves has also given a permanent endowment of five thousand dollars, which secures its steady growth.
In connection with the Library is a Reading Room, well supplied with the leading papers and periodicals of the country, and to both the students have free access.

APPARATUS.
During the past year a good beginning has been made in procuring Philosophical Apparatus. A complete set of Surveyor’s Instruments has also been procured.
Additions will be made from time to time.

STATE APPROPRIATION.
At the last session of the Georgia Legislature an act was almost unanimously passed making an annual appropriation of eight thousand dollars to this Institution. The appropriation was made on condition that the Board of Visitors of the State University should also visit this school; that the money should not be paid by the Governor till the Commissioners, Chancellor A. A. Lipscomb, D.D., Prof. William LeRoy Broun, A.M., and Professor William L. Mitchell, A.M., members of the Faculty of the University of Georgia, had approved the plan of the Trustees for its expenditure and that the Institution should educate, free of tuition, one pupil for every member of the House of Representatives, to be nominated by the members. It is hoped that these enlarged facilities will be made use of by those for whom they are designed, and that members of the Legislature will interest themselves to secure the attention of such worthy young persons as reside in their counties. In this way the pressing demand for Common-School teachers may be early supplied.
TEACHING.

Nearly all of those who are sufficiently advanced in scholarship aid themselves by teaching. The demand for teachers is usually in excess of the supply.

County Superintendents of Schools, and others desiring teachers from this Institution, will find it for their interest to arrange their schools, if possible, so as to include its summer vacations, viz., the months of July, August and September. Communications from all such will be promptly attended to.

Students of this Institution desiring to teach will be furnished with certificates of membership and standing. As a means of protection from imposition, applicants for schools claiming to be from Atlanta University should be required to exhibit such certificates.

HISTORY.

This Institution was begun in accordance with a plan formed early in the history of the work of American Missionary Association in the South.

The Freedman's Bureau, the Association, and the State of Georgia, with a few friends, have furnished the means for what has been done.

Atlanta, because of its central position and healthful climate, was selected as the best place for such an institution. A charter was obtained in October, 1867, and a Board of Trustees formed.

The Trustees now hold about sixty acres of land on one of the highest elevations in the city, and commanding a fine view in all directions.

The first building was completed in September, 1869. It is a substantial, four-storied, brick building, neatly finished, and contains parlors, dining rooms, kitchen, bath-rooms, and dormitories for forty lady pupils. Another building of about the same style, in which are temporary school rooms, and dormitories for one hundred gentlemen, has since been completed. This building is now heated throughout by steam.

DESIGN.

The plan of the Institution for the immediate future, contemplates an addition to the ladies' hall, and also a central building, for chapel, school rooms, lecture rooms, cabinet, library, &c.
GENERAL INFORMATION.

It is expected that a majority of the students will engage in teaching, and instruction in all departments is adapted to that end. Earnest efforts are made to induce young men to prepare for the ministry.

The Institution stands on the broadest possible platform, and while intended to be thoroughly Christian, is in no respect sectarian. It offers its advantages to all of either sex, without regard to sect, race, color, or nationality.

It is designed to make the school, as far as possible, a home for those who attend. Not only their intellectual, but also their social, moral and religious culture, receive careful attention.

WANTS.

The school being without endowments is dependent upon the American Missionary Association for all support not derived from other sources.

There is pressing and immediate need of an addition to the Ladies' Hall.

Other needs are such as all young Colleges have—buildings, endowments, scholarships, reference books, maps, apparatus, &c.

Nowhere is an institution of this kind more needed, and nowhere will the offerings of Philanthropy and Christianity be likely to produce earlier and richer fruits.

EXPENSES.

Tuition and board, including furnished room, fuel, lights, and washing, per month. $12.00
Tuition for day pupils, " " " 2.00
Instruction in Instrumental Music, " " " 2.00
Use of Instrument one hour a day, " " " 1.00

All payments must be made in advance on the first day of each month.

Pupils entering after the beginning or leaving before the end of the month must pay for the entire month.

All pupils are required to work for the Institution at least one hour a day. This requirement makes the above low charges possible.

Remittances in payment of bills should be made by money-orders, drafts, in registered letters, or by express.

Make money-orders and drafts payable, during 1874-75, to Thomas N. Chase, and address all monies to him. Receipts will be promptly returned.
GENERAL INFORMATION.

SUGGESTIONS.

1. Each pupil should bring a Bible. It is needed for private reading, for the Sunday School and for the weekly Bible lesson. It is well to bring the text books formerly used.

2. All should be provided with warm clothing. Young ladies should have rubbers and waterproofs. Economy and good taste demand plain and simple clothing. Parents are urged to cooperate with teachers in seeing that none other is worn. No extra dress is required for the close of school.

3. Letters should be directed to Atlanta University, Atlanta, Ga.

4. Experience has taught that much evil comes from pupils receiving food from home. They are, therefore, not allowed to receive it. Friends will please not send it.
