Course of Study.

The regular course of study is especially designed for those who, by previous school training, are fitted for a full and thorough course in theology. Partial courses of study, occupying one or two years, have been provided for those whose circumstances do not permit their completing the full theological course.

Graduates of our higher institutions, by extra work during vacations, may finish the regular course in two years.

FIRST YEAR.

INTRODUCTION.—An Outlook over the Field of Theological Study; The Order and Methods of Study, Aids, etc.

EXEGETICAL THEOLOGY.—Hebrew (Elective)—Grammar, with Readings from Genesis.

Greek (Elective)—Grammatical Exercises; Studies in the Gospels, Acts and Epistle to the Galatians.

English Bible.—Practical Expository Exercises, and Studies in its Effective Use, together with the Use of Concordance, Commentaries and other Bible Helps.

Introduction.—Origin and History of the Sacred Canon; its Genuineness, Authenticity, Inspiration; Bible Geography, Archaeology and Chronology.

SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY.—Lectures on General and Christian Theology; Outlines of Biblical Theology; Christian Ethics; Articles of Religion of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

PRACTICAL THEOLOGY.—Introduction to Practical Theology; Lectures on the Office and Work of the Christian Ministry; Elements of Power in the Minister; Preparation for the Work, etc. Elocutionary and Rhetorical Exercises, Natural Methods of Delivery. Reading of Scripture, Hymns, etc.

HISTORICAL THEOLOGY.—Old Testament History; The Life of Christ; Planting and Training of the Christian Church; Outline Studies in General Church History; Map Drawing in Sacred Geography.
SECOND YEAR.

SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY.—Introduction to Doctrinal Theology; Theism; the Attributes of God; the Trinity; the Person and Work of Christ; the Holy Spirit; Redemption, its Ground, Conditions, Provisions; the Second Coming of Christ; the Resurrection; the Judgment; Heaven and Hell; the Sabbath; the Church and its Ordinances.

PRACTICAL THEOLOGY.—Homiletics: 1. The Idea of the Sermon; 2. The Building of the Sermon.—(a) Text—Uses, Sources, Form, Rules for the Selection and Interpretation of Texts; (b) Introduction; (c) Body of Sermon—Plans, Division, Arrangement, Development; (d) Conclusion; (e) Materials for Sermons Illustrations, etc. 2. The Delivery of Sermons—Natural Methods, Extempore Preaching and Sermonic Criticism; Rhetorical and Elocutionary Exercises.

HISTORICAL THEOLOGY.—Church History to the Reformation; History of Christian Doctrine; Essays and Discussions by the Class.

THIRD YEAR.

SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY.—Evidences of Christianity: Original Constructive Work in Doctrinal Theology; with Bible Index, Concordances, etc.; Essays and Discussions by the Class.

PRACTICAL THEOLOGY—Pastoral Office and Duties: Pastoral Visiting and Care of Flock; The Pastor as a Man among Men; His Relation to Reformatory and Social Issues; Church Management and Work; Benevolences; Church Plans and Building; the Conduct of Revivals; Prayer and Class Meetings; Homiletical Exercises and Preaching; Catechetics: Sunday Schools; Children's Classes. Sermons to Children, etc.: Liturgics: Conduct of CATALOGUE.

Public Worship; Public Prayer; Reading of Scripture and Hymns; Administration of the Sacraments; Pulpit Decorum;—The Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church; Church Polity; Church Trials; Charters and Deeds of Church Property, etc.

Historical Theology.—The Reformation; Modern Church History; History of Methodism; Ecclesiastical Statistics and Review of Religious Progress.

ADMISSION.

Each candidate for admission to the School of Theology must bring satisfactory testimonials from the Official Board or Quarterly Conference of his church, as to his personal religious character and fitness for the ministry. If already a minister he may produce his credentials. Ministers and candidates of all evangelical denominations are welcome to the full privileges of the Institution.

Candidates must show proficiency in the English branches. Those not thus prepared are advised to enter the classes of the Collegiate Department. As the sessions of the Theological School are held in the afternoon, they thus secure the advantages of both departments of the University.

The attention of our Presiding Elders and Pastors is directed to the following provision of our Discipline. Your co-operation is earnestly asked in reference to this important law of our Church:

"All candidates for our ministry are earnestly advised to attend one or more of the literary and theological institutions of our Church before applying to an annual conference for admission on trial."

"Our Theological Schools, whose professors are nominated or confirmed by the bishops, exist for the benefit of the whole Church, and it is the duty of the presiding elders and pastors to direct the attention of our ministry to the advantages afforded in these institutions."

SPECIAL FACILITIES.

The Theological Hall is an elegant building, erected and furnished at a cost of $30,000. It is built of brick, with stone trimmings, and is one hundred and ten by fifty-two feet, and four stories high. The students' rooms are large and well ventilated, and each floor is provided with baths.

The Library.—Students have free access to the Theological Library of 4,000 volumes, consisting of works in all departments of theology and related branches of study. It is arranged in various alcoves and classified for convenient reference.

In connection with class work, special instruction is given in the selection and reading of books on related topics of study. A full card-catalogue of the library is now in preparation.
Through our generous patron, Mr. Gammon, and the gifts of numerous friends, we have secured many of the best modern works of reference. The valuable library of the late Dr. Bannister of Garrett Biblical Institute, consisting of about 1,000 volumes of choice works, has recently been added to the library.

Lectures.—Occasional lectures on the practical work of the ministry are given by prominent and successful ministers.

Atlanta, being the central city of the South, affords unusual opportunities to students to hear the leading ministers and lecturers of the land.

The Reading Room is supplied with several of the best homiletic magazines and a variety of church reviews and periodicals. For the coming year a large room adjoining the library will be kept comfortable for a general study, with an alcove of the best books of reference at hand for constant use.

The Theological Literary and Debating Society affords a fine opportunity to the students of the School for practice in extempore speaking and for literary culture, in connection with their special studies. The frequent discussion of questions in theology and debates on the great moral issues are especially helpful to ministers.

Religious Privileges.—Regular services are held in the University Church, and the Sunday Schools and social and revival meetings of this and the city churches, offer ample opportunity for Christian labor.

Self Support.—Several charges and missions of the church within easy reach of the University, give employment to students. The Industrial Department also furnishes opportunity for self-support.

Practical Instruction in the drawing of plans for the construction of churches and parsonages is afforded to the theological students.

Free Tuition and Aid.

The School of Theology grants free tuition as well as free rooms to its regular students. The rooms are comfortably furnished, and board and fuel are given for two dollars per week. Books are furnished at a discount of from 25 to 30 per cent. from publishers' list prices.
Through the generous interest of friends, five beautiful cottages of three and five rooms each, have been erected on the grounds, for the use of married students. Formal application for cottages, free of rent, should be made early. Necessary heavy furniture has been provided for these homes.

Aid from loans, without interest, and gifts of friends are granted to deserving students. No young man with grace, gifts, and energy need be deprived of the advantages now opened to him in this School. We gratefully recognize the generous work that the Board of Education is doing for needy candidates for the ministry, and urge upon our pastors attention to its claims.

GRADUATION.

Students having the degree of A. B., and who complete and pass a satisfactory examination on the course in the School of Theology, will receive the Degree of Bachelor of Divinity.

Students who are not graduates of college, but who are far enough advanced to enter and complete the regular course, will receive the Diploma of the University, on graduation.

Those who take the partial courses of study, covering one and two years, and who pass satisfactory examination thereon, will receive a Certificate from the Institution to that effect.

AIMS AND METHODS.

The aim of this school is to do practical work in helping men towards success in the ministry. Its course of study is broad and practical; its ideals are high; its work thorough; its methods fresh, systematic, clear and simple. The course of study and methods of instruction will be adapted to the culture and capacity of those who seek its advantages.

We study the Word of God. The Bible is our chief text-book. All our studies encircle the Word. We aim to make its teachings plain, its doctrines luminous, and to furnish the best methods for its exegesis, explanation, and illustration to the people. We want to send forth men trained in the Scriptures; men who know their Bibles, and can explain its teachings plainly in the light of modern learning, and with the power of the best methods of interpretation:—in short—our aim is to send forth able ministers of the Word, who can give clearly defined views of its doctrines, and abundantly support them by a “Thus saith the Lord.” To teach biblical, rather than a scientific, theology; to unfold a Christ-centered theology, expressed in scriptural terms, rather than a dogmatic theology cast in scientific phrase, is the aim of this school.

The latest and most approved methods of instruction will be employed. The end is not simply to memorize text books, though the best works available are used in connection with the class work. Part of the work is done through lectures, with clear and pointed outlines and thorough reviews. Practical expositions of Scripture; drills, by blackboard exercises, in the planning and construction of sermons; original work in drawing out schemes of doctrine from the Bible text, are much employed. Special attention is also given to essays and discussions by the class. Throughout the course there are extempore addresses and sermons by the students, followed by the kind and helpful criticisms of the professors.

The design of the School is to send out earnest, practical, evangelical preachers who shall do intelligent and loyal service for Christ and the Church.

NEEDS.

Aid for students is greatly needed. With us, the special conditions of our work, the small salaries of our preachers and teachers, and the poverty of the people give special emphasis to this appeal for aid.

Here are twenty Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church alone to which this is the nearest school of theology. Hundreds of young men are coming up to fill the ranks. Never did a body of religious teachers stand more in need of the practical drill and personal influence and instruction that come through a course of theological training. Here are candidates eager for an education. The Church needs them. Upon them the future of our work in the South depends. They are too poor to pay their way. They must preach. Fifty or sixty dollars will help one to a year's training. What better investment for Christ and the Church can be made?

ACTUAL BUSINESS.

During the Senior year the student is placed in charge of a complete set of books which are kept in connection with our store. Here he deals in real merchandise and is thus required to record actual transactions, as the sales of books, pens, pencils, etc. which the students of the University purchase for their use. He makes out statements, bills of goods sold, receipts for money, gives and receives notes, checks, drafts, etc. These are deposited in which is a full working institution. We keep money on deposit at W. M. and R. J. Lowry's Bank in the city, which we use as our Foreign Correspondent. When desired, we cash checks and drafts sent to students, thus saving them time and trouble. All this work comes under the direct supervision of the Principal of the Department who is himself a practical accountant, having stood at the desk and behind the counter and there learned the lessons of mercantile life.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

receives such attention as is necessary to give a clear understanding of the rights and privileges of the individual in the dealings with others in commercial life.

COMMERCIAL CALCULATIONS.

receive a proper amount of attention including a review of decimal fractions, a thorough drill in various subjects of Percentage, as Interest, Partial Payments, Discount.

BANKS AND BANKING.

The different kinds of banks,—as Banks of Deposit, Banks of Exchange, National Banks, and Savings Banks, are considered.

College of Music.

MISS GENEVIEVE FAVILLE, DIRECTOR.

This Department of Instruction has been organized for those who wish to acquire a thorough knowledge of music, and it is under the care of a teacher whose exclusive attention is devoted to it. The aim is to teach pupils how to study music and the course of instruction has been arranged with a view to enable the student to become a competent teacher and an intelligent performer.

PIANO COURSE.

FIRST YEAR.

New England Conservatory Method, Book I.

Scale Practice.

SECOND YEAR.

Scale Practice, with Catechism.

Selections from Mendelssohn and other composers.

THIRD YEAR.

Works from different Composers.

Scale and Arpeggio Practice during entire year.
FOURTH YEAR.

Cramer's Studies,
One term of Organ work with practice in playing for church singing and class singing, Five of Beethoven's Sonatas and such other works as the teacher may choose.

ORGAN COURSE.

As the best preparations for the study of the organ, the students should devote the first two years to piano practice. The third and fourth years will be given to organ practice.

Only standard Text-books will be used.

Students who wish to study the Organ and do not know rudiments of Music will be required to learn them on the piano.

Careful instruction will be given in Harmony and Voice Culture. Public Recitals and Normal training will be special features. Sight singing classes and classes for beginning will be formed each term. These classes will form clubs and sing for recitals, Social and Public Entertainments.

The school has three pianos and two organs and an experienced teacher devotes her whole time to this department.

Each pupil taking lessons is entitled to one hour practice every day. Extra hours must be paid for.

No money to be refunded unless student leaves school on account of severe sickness.

Liberal reduction to those who pay in advance.

We advise students to begin at the first of the term so they may have the advantage of the practice.
Industrial Department.

COURSE OF STUDY.

FIRST YEAR.

Arithmetic to Decimal Fractions, Reading, Spelling and Writing. Industrial Instruction two hours, Practical work two hours each day

SECOND YEAR.

Arithmetic to Evolution, Reading, Spelling and Writing, Geography to South America. Industrial Instruction as first year.

THIRD YEAR.

Business Arithmetic twice each week, Geography completed, Elementary Grammar, Reading, Spelling and Writing, Industrial and Architectural Drawing. Work one hour each day.

N. B. All students in English Studies requiring aid must take this Course.

CARPENTRY. B. W. DAVIS, MANAGER.

A two story shop contains an engine one circular-saw, two scroll saws, three lathes, and draughting tables.

The young men learn the use of tools, how to draw plans, and to make specifications for buildings.

A large number of houses have been built by the students and practical work in this line is given every year.

AGRICULTURE, WILLIAM CLARK, MANAGER.

Four hundred and fifty acres of land give us plenty of room for this Department. Young men who desire a good English education and wish to make thorough farmers, will find every necessary advantage here.
PRINTING, G. W. ARNOLD, Instructor.

A good press and a full newspaper and job printing outfit, give students an opportunity to become first-class printers. A bi-weekly paper, The Elevator, gives practical experience that is very valuable. Besides our paper, we publish our own catalogues and do all the college printing, as well as outside job-work.

Competent instructors are constantly employed in this department.

DOMESTIC ECONOMY.

Under the management of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

FLORA MITCHELL, Manager.

A beautiful six-room cottage furnishes a "Model Home," where a class of six remain one year and learn the art of housekeeping. All the girls are taught various kinds of sewing, and an advanced class studies the most approved systems of dressmaking and millinery.

WAGON AND CARRIAGE BUILDING.

WOOD WORK, B. F. HOYT, Manager.

The Carriage-shop is in charge of a competent mechanic, who gives instruction in every branch of this trade. Carriages and wagons are built here, furnishing all the practice needed.

IRON WORK, W. P. SLOAN, Manager.

A neat shop is supplied with forge, anvils, and all necessary tools. During the past year a large class has been taught all kinds of wagon iron-work. The wagon-builders of Atlanta furnish steady work, thus giving the students the valuable practice experience.

TRIMMING, C. C. PENNEY, Instructor.

All branches of this profitable trade are taught by an excellent workman. The work done this year has received strong commendation.

PAINTING, GEORGE W. LEE, Instructor.

The painting and varnishing of every description of carriage is done in the best style and a limited number of students can take lessons.
HARNESS-MAKING, WM. J. ARNOLD, INSTRUCTOR.

This department has been crowded with orders this year, and a large class has taken instruction and made rapid advancement.

TRAINING CLASS FOR NURSES.

A class will be organized in October 1886, for the training of young women as nurses for the sick. It will be under the charge of the resident physician who will give special instruction, and furnish practical work in the school and neighborhood. Lectures will be given by the best medical talent of the city.

Georgia Hall.

The great need of the Industrial Department is a new and more convenient building. The erection of Warren Hall will necessitate the removal of our present shops, and we hope our generous friends will enable us to develope this essential department of the University. The plan is to raise a large part of the money in the South, and name the building, “Georgia Hall.” The estimated cost is Five Thousand Dollars, of which One Thousand has been conditionally pledged. Handsome cards have been printed, representing a brick, and are sold at ten cents each. The sale of Forty Thousand cards will insure the completion of the building. The bricks will be burned in the University Brick-yard, thus insuring a large structure for a small outlay. We appeal to our friends, North and South for an immediate response, so that we may begin work this summer.
TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Applicants for admission must sign a pledge to abstain from the use of intoxicating liquors and tobacco in any form, while members of the school.

Students from other schools must bring letters of honorable dismissal; and in order to enter advanced classes must show certificates of scholarship.

Students are requested to come on the first day of the term and save themselves and teachers much trouble.

All persons who neglect their studies, are not neat in their persons and habits, disobey rules frequently, or in any way exert an evil influence, will be dismissed.

Students are admitted to all the privileges of the school without regard to color, sect, or sex.

CLASSES.

We cannot start classes to suit the convenience of late comers.

Classes in Latin and Greek and Higher Mathematics are generally started in Fall Term, or when the regular class are ready for them. Students behind a class, even in one study, are ranked with the next lower class until the deficiency is made up.
EXPENSES.

Board is charged by the month, and students are required to pay monthly in advance. It is safer to deposit all surplus money with the treasurer.

Board per calendar month, $10.00
Regular Students in three years' Theological Course, and all ordained Ministers, $9.00
Other Theological Students regular price.
Incidental Fee for Day Students, $1.00

A discount of 5 per cent will be made from the June payment to those who have paid promptly in advance during the year.

All boarders must deposit Two Dollars for the use of lamp, mirror etc. the money to be refunded when the articles are returned in good condition.

Young ladies in Warren Hall must furnish their own bowls, pitchers and cans, if they wish them in their rooms. There are wash-rooms on each floor.

STUDENT AID.

Do not come expecting help, unless you make definite arrangements beforehand. We generally require students to pay for a month, at least, in advance, so that we can learn whether they are worthy of aid. It is thought best to cultivate a feeling of independence by requiring students to work for help allowed. In some cases we grant loans to advanced students.

A student of good moral character, diligence, and ability will always find some way to finish his education.

LOCATION.

Atlanta, being easily reached by railroads from every direction, is especially adapted for the location of a school. Clark University is on a high, heavily wooded ridge, where there is plenty of pure air and water. There are several fine mineral springs on the grounds. Over 400 acres afford ample room for healthful recreation. We are near enough the city for business purposes, and far enough to render it easy to keep the students away from its temptations. The East Tennessee, Virginia, & Georgia Railroad will land students close to the College.
WARREN HALL.

Warren Hall is the new building just completed for the use of the ladies. It contains forty-five dormitories, a large reading room, large kitchens and laundries, and a dining-room capable of seating three hundred persons. One-half the cost of erection was donated by Rev. E. H. Gammon.

LIBRARY.

All students have the use of the University Library, and also of the valuable collection of religious and theological works in the library of the School of Theology.

The Reading Rooms are well supplied with secular and religious papers and magazines.

APPARATUS.

The fine apparatus, presented by Mrs. E. H. Gammon, adds great interest to the study of the Natural Sciences.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are four Literary Societies in the Collegiate Department; two conducted by the ladies, and two by the gentlemen. There is also one in the School of Theology.
To PARENTS,—You may be certain that your children will be under the best influences if they board in the building. Special attention is given to Bible study and religious training. Preaching Services, Sunday School and Prayer Meeting are held on the Sabbath, and prayer and class meetings during the week. Send your children on the first day of the term; never on Sunday.

Give them warm clothing, towels, napkins and soap, but little extra money. Write to the President if you hear rumors that they are sick. A skillful resident physician attends the students at low rates.

Send no boxes of food, without enclosing money for doctors’ bills.

Never send your children unless you intend to keep them here as long as you believe them to be treated well. Homesickness is frequent the first month, but easily cured.

Do not furnish your children with expensive clothing at any time, especially at commencement.

Provide your daughters with dark dresses and skirts.

To STUDENTS,—Your entrance into the school is considered a promise to obey the rules and to be prompt and diligent.

Visits cannot be made or received on Sunday.

Young men who do not live at home cannot board out of the Institution without special permission. Young ladies cannot board outside of college building except at home, under any circumstances.

Students will be required to dress plainly. At commencement the young ladies will be required to wear dresses of cheap material, and made up as far as possible by their own hands, in the sewing classes.

Young ladies will not be allowed to wear white dresses or skirts from Nov. 1st. to April 15th., and during the remainder of the year only at Public Entertainments. They must be laundered outside the school at the expense of the student.
Direct all letters and express packages to Clark University Atlanta, Ga. Trouble and delay will be saved by sending money direct to the President, who will send receipt.

Make out money orders in name of E. O. Thayer, and thus avoid delays and mistakes.

We bear patiently with troublesome students, as long as we think there is hope for reform, but the following misdemeanors bring immediate suspension, viz.; Keeping or using firearms, the use of tobacco, liquor, cards, or profanity; repeated disobedience of any rule.

Notice.—If you take a hack at the depot require the driver to promise to take you to Clark University, on Capitol Avenue. The University omnibus will be at the depot the first week of each term to meet the day trains.
