Sketch of Atlanta University

1865  Beginning of work: Jenkins Street Church, and Car-Box.
1866  Storrs School, and Asylum.
1867  Incorporation of "The Trustees of the Atlanta University."
1869  Formal Opening: Asylum in April, North Hall in October.
1869-1885  Presidency of Edmund Asa Ware.
1888-1907  Presidency of Horace Bumstead.
1907-1922  Presidency of Edward Twichell Ware.
1923—  Presidency of Myron W. Adams.

Atlanta University is one of the outgrowths of that earnest educational crusade which brought so many devoted teachers to the South in the sixties and seventies. While its formal work under its present name did not begin until 1869, it was chartered two years before that date, and its real work began as early as November of 1865. Its first normal class graduated in 1873, and its first college class in 1876.

Of the seven large brick buildings, one is for administration and general school purposes. Two are dormitories. One is a domestic science building for the training of young women in practical domestic arts. An industrial building for boys serves both industrial and demonstration high school purposes. There is a separate library building with over sixteen thousand volumes and a small endowment for its upkeep and improvement. And there is a practice school, at which our normal students have the opportunity to observe the teaching of the assistants employed there and themselves to practice the art. A well furnished printing office, and well equipped physical and chemical laboratories, help still further in the work of instruction. A fuller description is found on page 24 of this catalogue.

The college course includes four years and the normal course two years, each based upon a high school course of four years. There have been graduated from the college course 371 (this number includes 3 theological graduates); and from the normal course 900. The total is 1267, since four are duplicates. Of the normal graduates 54 have had special diplomas for training in kindergarten work.

The boarding department can accommodate about 190 students. All prospective graduates are required to spend a portion of their time in this department before receiving their diplomas. The girls of the normal course are assigned to the domestic science cottage in groups of seventeen, where they do all the work of the home under the supervision of the matron. It is intended that there shall be a genuine home atmosphere in the life of the institution. While not denominational, the institution is a distinct outgrowth of the Christian spirit, and both by its wish and its charter is pledged to maintain that spirit. Boarding students attend church services and Sunday school on the campus. The students’ organizations, the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., are important factors in promoting an interest in the religious life.

The normal graduates of this institution are given professional normal certificates by the Georgia State Board of Education. College graduates who have done major work in Education are given similar professional college certificates. Our recommendations are favorably received in New York, North Carolina, and many other states also.

During the summer and fall of 1918 Atlanta University gave instruction in mechanic arts to about 250 soldiers, in two detachments. Of this number 215 received certificates for their work. A college section of the Students' Army Training Corps was also organized and 53 students enrolled. We were represented in the war by 17 graduates and 116 former students, of whom 27 were commissioned officers, and 3 lost their lives in the service of their country.

In round numbers our permanent funds amount to $285,000. Our great need is an endowment of at least $900,000. The total annual cost of the work is about $75,000. Of this amount the students Financial pay approximately $24,000 and the invested funds and a few miscellaneous revenues yield an income of about $14,000. For the remaining $37,000 the University is dependent upon the annual gifts of friends. The institution makes an earnest appeal for generous gifts, so as not to be hampered in the doing of effective academic work.

Our first summer session was held in 1924; the second and third, being each one half of a semester, in 1925 and 1926. That in 1927 will also be one half of a semester. Extension class work after regular school hours, begun in January of 1924, is being continued.

REMEMBER ATLANTA UNIVERSITY IN YOUR WILL.
The corporate name is, The Trustees of the Atlanta University.
TERMS OF ADMISSION

In addition to presenting proper credentials with reference to their character, candidates for the freshman and the junior normal classes are required to give satisfactory evidence of the completion of four years of high school work. This is ordinarily stated as meaning at least 15 units, a "unit" representing a year's study, thirty-six or more weeks, in any subject in a secondary school, constituting approximately a quarter of a full year's work. In the case of college students at least 3 of these units must be in the department of English, 2½ in mathematics, 2 each in foreign language and social science (including history), and 1 in natural science. In the case of normal students at least 3 must be in English, 2 each in mathematics and social science and natural science, and 1 in foreign language. In some cases we deviate from these requirements, making corresponding changes in the college or normal work required.

Candidates for advanced standing should present satisfactory recommendations, and official detailed statements as to previous work.

A student who is a graduate from a satisfactorily accredited high school, officially recommended by the same, and whose preparation is along the lines mentioned above, is a candidate for admission, without condition and without examination, to our freshman or junior normal class. Others who present a record of fifteen units, properly distributed, are eligible to such admission if their record is verified by successfully passing four comprehensive examinations, two of which must be in English and mathematics. These examinations will be given July 22 and 23, and September 23 and 24. A limited number of those who fail to meet the full requirements may be admitted, on trial, as unclassified students.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

I. Quantity. 128 semester hours, the class periods being 55 full minutes in length and the full year 36 weeks. No semester hour is accepted with a grade of less than 60 per cent.

II. Quality of Work. 288 "grade points," 7 points being given to a grade of 95, 1 to a grade of 65, and none to a grade below that figure.

III. Distribution of Work. A reasonable distribution of work over several departments of study is expected of all students. The smallest number of semester hours acceptable is as follows: Social science (and economics) 20; English, foreign language, science and mathematics together, 14 each; education and philosophy, 6 each. A student is also expected to show power of concentration by completing majors in at least two departments of work, a major ordinarily including at least 20 semester hours. A limited deviation from the usual requirements as to distribution of work can be permitted by the faculty in exceptional cases.

The requirements for normal graduation, while varying from the above in detail, are the same in principle.
Subjects of Study in the College

The especial attention of all college students is called to the "Requirements for Graduation" as stated on page 8. Outside of these requirements they are given a reasonable freedom in their choice of courses. Sixteen semester hours constitute the usual program of a student. While not invariable, his selection will ordinarily, in 1927-28, be made out of the following lists, those marked with an asterisk being ordinarily assigned to all:

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

Our courses of instruction are determined in the main by three considerations: (1) the expectation as expressed in our charter that this shall be "an institution for the liberal and Christian education of youth"; (2) our historical development, and the tremendous needs in that direction, have led us to place great emphasis upon the professional training of teachers; (3) it is also an important part of the work of institutions of this nature to equip students for further professional study in the leading institutions which prepare for the essential professions.

NOTE: In this list of courses, those numbered from 111 to 199 are ordinarily taken by freshman and sophomore, or junior normal students. Those numbered from 211 to 299 are ordinarily taken by junior and senior college, or senior normal students. Normal (N) and special kindergarten training (K) courses are duly designated. The courses mentioned have all been given either this year or during 1925-26. The figures in parentheses following the title of the course indicate the number of semester hours actually given in that course during the year 1926-27.

I. EDUCATION

More of our graduates, by far, both college and normal, have engaged in teaching than in any other occupation. For that reason it has seemed wise, in our normal school from the beginning, and more recently in our college also, to give definite professional training in Education.

General:

112. HISTORY OF EDUCATION. (3). Text: Cubberley's History of Education. Special reports on American conditions.

Elementary:

212-b. PSYCHOLOGY OF ELEMENTARY SCHOOL SUBJECTS: (2). Given during the summer of 1926.

Secondary:

113. PRINCIPLES OF SECONDARY EDUCATION. (3). Text: Inglis' Principles of Secondary Education.

216. PSYCHOLOGY OF HIGH SCHOOL SUBJECTS. (4). Text: Judd.

Administration and Supervision:

214. SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION. (4). Text: Cubberley's School Administration. Reports and discussions required.
Observation and Practice:

215. (2). In connection with the above courses two semester hours, and occasionally more, are given to supervised observation and practice teaching.

General:

N111. PSYCHOLOGY. (4). General and genetic, with applications to Education. Text: Colvin and Bagley's Human Behavior.

N213. SCHOOL AND CLASS MANAGEMENT. (3). Text: Strayer and Engelhardt's The Classroom Teacher.

N214. HISTORY OF EDUCATION. (3). Text: Graves' Student's History of Education.

N215. GENERAL METHODS. (4). Discussion of all subjects of study taught in the Oglethorpe School, and their mutual relations. General critic work. Texts: Strayer's Brief Course in Teaching, Kendall's How to Teach the Fundamental Subjects, and others.

N218. EDUCATIONAL PROBLEMS. (2). General problems, with references.

K212. THE KINDERGARTEN CURRICULUM. (2). A study of the methods of the kindergarten in relation to development of subject matter. Special emphasis on the use of problems and projects.

Special Methods:

N216. MUSIC. (1). Taken with especial reference to teaching.

N114. ILLUSTRATIVE HANDWORK. (4). Double periods. Designed to increase the efficiency of teachers in their work with children.

N115. GAMES. (2). Double periods. For schoolroom and playground.

K111. CONSTRUCTIVE MATERIALS. (6). Special study of kindergarten materials and their function in the mental and moral development of the child.

K112. ELEMENTARY SCIENCE. (2). Nature study, including principles of growth and development.

Observation and Practice:

N116. Observation. (2). The junior normal students attend the classes of the Oglethorpe Training School two periods each week throughout the year, to observe and criticise the work of the different grades and the kindergarten classes. This course is K116 for students taking the special work in kindergarten training.

N217. Teaching. (4). Practice teaching in the Training School, divided among the different grades and the kindergarten classes, and also among the different subjects of study. Plans are made in advance, and there are frequent conferences with the critic teacher. The Beacon system of reading is used in the primary grades. This course is K217 for students taking the special work in kindergarten training.

The Oglethorpe School. In this school, described under Buildings, is given an opportunity to engage in the actual work of teaching and to observe such work under thoroughly competent supervisors. This organization includes, in 1926-27, eight grades and a kindergarten.

Game Festival. As an outcome of the study of games, a play festival, including folk games and dances, and stories interpreted by song, color and rhythm, in which Junior Normal girls, kindergarten, and first and second grades of the Oglethorpe School participate, is held during the Commencement week.

II. A & B. PHYSICAL AND NATURAL SCIENCES

121. Chemistry I. (9). General inorganic chemistry. Two laboratory triple periods, and three class room exercises devoted to lectures, demonstrations and recitations. (a) and (b) for students not presenting chemistry for admission; and more advanced work, (b) and (c), for students given entrance credit in the subject. Text: Smith's College Chemistry.

122. Chemistry II. (6). Qualitative analysis. Two laboratory triple periods, and two class room exercises, dealing with the basic and acid radicals, with group separatives and study of unknowns. Text: Steiglitz, Qualitative Analysis, I & II.

221. Chemistry III. Quantitative analysis. Laboratory work in gravimetric and volumetric analysis. Lectures and conferences.

223. BIOLOGY. (8). A laboratory course in plant and animal biology, involving a study of plant and animal types, with the use of the compound microscope and the dissecting instruments. Texts: Calkins' Biology; Woodruff’s Biology.

123. PHYSICS I. (6). First semester, mechanics and heat; second semester, electricity, sound and light. Two laboratory triple periods weekly, and two class room exercises devoted to lectures, demonstrations and recitations. Text: Webster’s College Physics.

N221. GEOGRAPHY. (4). Text: Huntington and Cushing’s Human Geography. Library references and other allied work required.

III. ENGLISH

234. MASTERPIECES OF FOREIGN LITERATURE. (2). A summer course, using approved translations from the best Hebrew, Greek, Latin, Italian, Spanish, French, German and Russian authors.

235. THE NOVEL. (2). Various texts; required readings.

236. THE ROMANTIC MOVEMENT IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY. (6). Required readings, lectures.

237-b. DRAMATIC TECHNIQUE. (3). Study of contemporary plays; the writing and production of original plays. Text: Baker’s Dramatic Technique.
N113. GRAMMAR. (4). See under EDUCATION.
N231. RHETORIC. (4). Equivalent to 131 above.

PUBLIC RHETORICALS. Rhetorical exercises, to which the public is especially invited, are held seven times a year, being made up of essays, recitations and music. For the dates, see CALENDAR.

IV. FOREIGN LANGUAGES

141. FRENCH I. (6). Aldrich-Foster-Roule, Elementary French; Moore and Foure, A French Reader.
241. FRENCH II. (8). Prose composition; daily conversation; selections from Hugo, Dumas, Jules Verne, and others.
142. GERMAN I. (8). Allen and Phillipson, First Book in German; Haertel, German Reader for Beginners.
143. GERMAN II. (6). Prose composition; selections from Schiller, Arnold, Freytag and Spielhazen.
144. GREEK. Selections from the leading historical, philosophical and poetic writers.
145. LATIN. (6). Selections from Livy, Cicero, Horace, Tacitus and others.
268. SPANISH. (8). See under FINANCE.

V. SOCIOLOGY AND HISTORY

152. EUROPEAN HISTORY. (8). General History to the middle of the 18th century, and European History since that date. Texts: Thorndike and Lynn's History of Modern Europe; Robinson's History of Western Europe; Hazen's Fifty Years of Europe.
251. SOCIOLOGY. (6). General sociology, and social conditions of the Negro American. Texts: Park and Burgess' Introduction to the Study of Sociology; Arneson's A Gateway to the Social Sciences.
252. SOCIAL WORK. A study introductory to the problems of social work.
253. THE FAMILY. (2). Lectures; required reading.
256. Criminology. (3). This is a continuation of Social Problems and Research with an intensive study of the crime problem. Practice in the collection and presentation of data required. Text: Sutherland's Criminology.

N151. U. S. History and Civics. (8). Similar to college course 151.

VI. Economics and Finance

162. Marketing (3). A study of the methods and policies governing the principles of marketing agricultural, mineral, forest and manufactured goods. Texts: Converse, Marketing Methods and Policies; Hubner, Agricultural Commerce.

261-a. Principles of Economics. (4). A comprehensive course in economic theory. Supply and demand; value and price; money and coinage; international trade; distribution. Index numbers, banking, the business cycle; wages; profits, rents. Text: Ely, Outlines of Economics.

263. Money and Banking. (2). A study of the history of money; functions of money; bimetallism; legal tender, value of money; paper money. History of banking; functions of banks; credit and credit instruments; the National Bank System and defects; the Federal Reserve System. Text: Holdsworth, Money and Banking.

266. Investments. (2). Text: Jordan.

269. ACCOUNTING (4). An intensive course for beginners covering methods of sole proprietorship, partnership, and corporation. The principle of double entry bookkeeping; the working sheet; financial statements. Practice is required. Text: Kohler and Morrison, Principles of Accounting.

26-a. BUSINESS LAW. (3). Lectures, and suitable texts.

26-b. REAL ESTATE. (3). Lectures, and suitable texts.

VII. MATHEMATICS

175. COLLEGE ALGEBRA. (3). Text: Rietz and Crathorne.

271. CALCULUS. (8). With some solid analytic geometry. The calculus of several independent variables; differential equations. Text: Woods and Bailey.

274. PROBLEMS AND TABLES IN STATISTICS. (2). Text: Mills and Davenport.

N112. ARITHMETIC. (4). See under EDUCATION.

VIII. PHILOSOPHY AND PSYCHOLOGY

111. PSYCHOLOGY. (6). See under EDUCATION.

211. EDUCATIONAL TESTS AND MEASUREMENTS. See under EDUCATION.

286. ETHICS. (4). A systematic and historical course, with especial reference to the social consciousness. Texts: Everett's Moral Values; Dewey and Tufts' Ethics.

287. HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY. (4). Texts: Calkins' Persistent Problems of Philosophy; Durant's Story of Philosophy.

N111. PSYCHOLOGY. (4). See under EDUCATION.

N212. CHILD PSYCHOLOGY. (2). See under EDUCATION.

IX. RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

N191. LIFE OF CHRIST. (4). Text: Gilbert's Student's Life of Jesus.

N291. RELIGIOUS EDUCATION. (2). Text: Stout's Organization and Administration of Religious Education.
N106. HOUSEHOLD MANAGEMENT. (2). The home in its history; the house, its arrangement and management; household accounts.

N206. SANITATION. (2). Study of the human mechanism, of disease, of bacteriology, of personal and public hygiene.

N107. ART AND DESIGN. Schoolroom decoration and creative design; historic ornament; methods in teaching drawing.

During the present year courses are given after regular hours in Educational Measurements (211), Victorian Poets (236), and French I (141).

FRESHMAN THEMES. These are a part of Course 131, being intended to call the especial attention of students in that class to the need of system in their choice of subjects of study. These themes are inspected not only by the instructor, but also by members of the faculty.

INTELLIGENCE TESTS. These have been given to members of the freshman and junior normal classes for four years, and will be continued as a part of our regular program.

HONORS AND PRIZES

Graduate Honors:

Sophomores: Julia Adelaide Walker.

Freshmen: Wilhelmina Johnson, Evelyn Ross, Virginia Toles, Myron Bumstead Towns.

Senior Normals: Hazeline Collier, Alice Ruth Kendrick, Margaret Gadsden, Gertrude Agnes Lee, Lula Mae Sutton.

Junior Normals: Willie Mae Capers, Emma Parks.

The Herndon Prizes for Excellence in Public Speaking were awarded in 1926, in the order named, for young women to Cecilia McCoy and M. Adelene Holtzclaw; and for young men (equally) to Donarell R. Green, Richard H. Jefferson, and William D. Thomas. In 1927 they were awarded, in the order named, to Amaza E. Joyner, Irma Irene Jackson, Mathilde M. Blair; and to Richard E. Brown, S. Arlington Jones and Melvin L. Heard.
This part of our work is in a period of transition. In 1926-27 we have a demonstration and practice high school in the Knowles Building, with accommodations for not exceeding eighty pupils of first and second year classification. The third year also will cease to be a part of our regular work in 1927-28, it being proposed to offer in the Knowles Building during that year 14 units of work, 12 of which are required, in English 2½, Latin 3, Industrial Arts 3, General History and Civics 1½, and one each in Algebra, Geometry, French and Physics. The quantity of work constituting a unit is approximately that which is defined as such by the Southern Association of Colleges and High Schools.

Third Year students in 1926-27 whose record is satisfactory are permitted to be regular students in 1927-28, taking such work as will enable them to complete the 16 units which are required for college or normal entrance of all students who do their high school work on the campus of Atlanta University.

Music. Instruction in the piano is given at a reasonable charge, for which see Expenses. Ten pianos are in use by the institution. An effort is made to suit the instruction to the needs of the individual pupil. In general the Elementary Course includes foundation work in technique, with selected studies and sonatinas, and easy pieces by classical and modern composers; the Advanced Course continues the study of technique, including major and minor scales in various forms; arpeggios and chords, etudes, and studies. Greater attention is given to such composers as Mendelssohn, Schumann, Schubert, Chopin, Grieg, Rubinstein, Mozart, Haydn, Beethoven. Private recitals are given at intervals and a public recital is given at the close of the year.

Instruction is given to choruses, the church choir, glee clubs and quartets of both men and women. There is also a school orchestra.

Printing. Opportunity is given in a well appointed printing office to learn typesetting, newspaper, book and job work. For a more complete description of this office, see page 24.
GENERAL INFORMATION

LOCATION

The University grounds are at the head of West Mitchell street, about one mile from the center of the city of Atlanta, Ga., and a little more than one-half mile from the new terminal station. Electric cars marked “WEST HUNTER, ASHBY,” leave the corner of Marietta and Broad streets, run near the terminal station, and directly past our gate.

MEMBERSHIP

To prevent overcrowding it is necessary to limit the number of pupils. Application for admission should be made as early as possible and should state, fully, previous education and present plans.

Students should be on hand for examination and classification promptly in order that they may enter the first day of the school year, and thus lose no time in beginning work.

Good health being necessary for success in study, it is expected that none who are permanently weak or diseased will apply for admission. The Institution has a good reputation for healthfulness, and the interests of the people for whom it was founded demand that this reputation should be maintained. Applicants are required to present a physician's certificate certifying to good health, and the time of the last effective vaccination if needed. Regular physical exercise is encouraged and may be required in groups or classes when considered expedient.

During vacation, as well as during term time, students are held amenable to the authority of the school.

The Institution is not sectarian in its religious instruction or influence, while aiming to be thoroughly Christian. It is open to students of either sex.

GOVERNMENT

Discipline is administered with firmness and impartiality, and aims to induce a high moral sentiment, which shall be in itself a powerful governing force in the school.

When it becomes plain that a pupil has not a fixed purpose to improve his time, and an earnest desire to fit himself for usefulness, he is removed without specific charges. We regret to disappoint parents, but students must themselves manifest a spirit of reasonable responsibility. Suspension and expulsion from the Institution are resorted to in cases whose seriousness calls for such punishment.

When students are exposing themselves and others to permanent harm, it is expected that high-minded persons will be governed by the dictates of conscience and common sense, rather than by any false sense of honor in regard to disclosing the facts to the proper authorities.

(See below for special charges, and reduction by student aid.)

Payment is due by the month, in advance. Pay day is the 20th of each month, beginning Sept. 20. Entrance at any date between Sept. 17 and 23 is regarded as of the 20th.

SPECIAL FEES AND CHARGES

For graduation, normal $2.00; college $5.00.

For special instruction in music, per lesson, 75 cents.

For use of piano for practice, per calendar month, 50 cents.

Special kindergarten students in the junior normal year pay a fee of $5.00 for materials.

Laboratory charges per year are: Elementary physics, $2.00; chemistry, $8.00; college physics, $4.00; biology, $6.00. Chemistry breakage deposit, $2.00 each semester.

Charge for each delinquent or special examination, ordinarily 50 cents; for freshman intelligence test, $3.00.

All boarding students are required to work for the Institution at least one hour a day. This requirement helps to make the above charges possible.

Make money orders or drafts payable to Atlanta University.

STUDENT AID

A reduction in tuition, not exceeding $8.00 a semester, is available to those day students whose scholarship warrants it and who are in need of this aid.

In addition to this, student aid is available for boarders whose needs and worthiness justify it. In all such cases there should be previous application, and reasonable information as to the need. Such aid is not promised for a longer time than the current year. Those who are aided are assigned to some extra work.

Students able to meet their own bills should not ask for a reduction. It is wrong to ask friends to do for us what we can do for ourselves.

THE LIBRARY

By the liberality of the late R. R. Graves, Esq., of New York, and a few other friends, the library now contains over 16,000 volumes. Mr. Graves also gave a permanent endowment of five thousand dollars, since increased to six thousand, which insures its steady growth.

In January, 1906, the books of the library were moved from Stone Hall into the new building, erected by the munificence of Mr. Andrew Carnegie. For a description, see BUILDINGS.

Aside from the reading room in the library building, there are also reading rooms in each of the two principal dormitories, thus giving to those in the boarding department convenient access to many of the leading papers and periodicals of the country.

THE MARBLEHEAD LIBRARIES

In 1910 a traveling library system was inaugurated at Atlanta University. This was made possible by the generosity of the late James J. H. Gregory of Marblehead, Mass., who carefully selected and gave for this purpose over 2,000 books. They have been arranged in collections of forty to fifty volumes, and are sent for terms of six months to schools or responsible individuals, so that they may be used to the greatest advantage in the localities receiving them.

PUBLICATIONS

These include the annual catalogue, which is the April issue of the Atlanta University Bulletin. The Bulletin is issued six times a year, and the subscription price is twenty-five cents.

Occasional leaflets and pamphlets descriptive of our work and needs are also issued from time to time. The General Catalogue, published in 1918, gives a very complete statement up to that date concerning officers, teachers, graduates and advanced students. The cost of this is fifty cents. A recent illustrated booklet, Atlanta University at Work, will be sent free on application.

From 1896 to 1917 a series of twenty monographs upon important phases of the Negro problems was published by the Atlanta University Press. The titles and prices of the same will be sent on application.
BUILDINGS

The buildings are situated on high ground, in the western part of the city, and surrounded by fifty-five acres of land belonging to the Institution.

DORMITORIES

There are two principal dormitories, the one used by the girls having been erected in 1869, and a wing added in 1880. This building contains the school kitchen and dining room. The dormitory used by the boys was built in 1870, with a wing added in 1871. Each of these buildings contains a parlor, reading room and gymnasium. They also have a complete system of sanitary plumbing, with bathtubs supplied with hot and cold water.

STONE HALL

This building, erected in 1882, stands between the two dormitories and is a gift of the late Mrs. Valeria G. Stone, of Malden, Mass. It contains the chapel, the large schoolroom, recitation and lecture rooms, the physical and chemical laboratories, offices, etc. This building, the two dormitories, the practice school, the library and domestic science building are heated by steam from one plant.

KNOWLES BUILDING

This building, erected in 1884, was for the use of the mechanic arts department. It is a memorial of the late Mr. L. J. Knowles, of Worcester, Mass., whose widow appropriated from his estate $6,000 for its erection, this amount being increased by gifts of a few other friends.

Until the fall of 1926 this building was used exclusively for boys' industrial training. When, however, we began to discontinue the high school as a part of our regular work, and to limit attendance in it as a demonstration and practice high school, it became evident that the whole building was not needed for its original purpose. Its present use is as follows:

In the basement is a room with several iron working machines, and a large and commodious room for the use of the cooking classes, and also serving the purpose of a lunch room. Other parts of the basement are used for storage purposes.

The first floor has the principal's office, a large combined mill room and bench room and wood-turning room, all excellently equipped, and a combined storage room and paint shop. The second floor has two rooms for the use of the ninth and tenth grades, and a large room used for instruction in sewing, and also in mechanical drawing.

THE FURBER COTTAGE

This building, also known under the more formal name of "The King's Daughters' Model Home and Maria B. Furber Cottage," was erected
In 1899 from contributions which had been slowly gathered during a number of years, chiefly from circles of King's Daughters in many parts of the country, and from personal friends of the late Mrs. Maria B. Furber, wife of the late Rev. Dr. Daniel L. Furber, of Newton Center, Mass., who himself made generous additions to the building fund previous to his death. It contains dormitory rooms for at least nineteen occupants, who carry on all the work of the home without servants, and is equipped with facilities for teaching the domestic arts in the most thoroughly scientific as well as practical manner.

THE OGLETHORPE SCHOOL

This building, erected in 1904, is the gift of the General Education Board of New York and its Treasurer, Mr. George Foster Peabody, each contributing the sum of $5,000, and of a large number of other friends who contributed a third sum of $5,000. The building contains twelve rooms, including two in the basement, and is used for practice teaching in connection with the Normal Department, special attention being given to the training of Kindergarten teachers as well as teachers for the public schools.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY BUILDING

This building, erected in 1905, is the gift of Mr. Andrew Carnegie, who contributed $25,000 for its erection and furnishing. It contains a fire-proof stack-room, large reading and reference rooms, a lecture room, picture room, rooms for unpacking the travelling libraries, etc., and is equipped with the most modern furnishings and apparatus for effective library administration.

NEEDS

The great need of Atlanta University is an adequate endowment. At present the invested funds amount to $285,000. The Institution should have, to maintain the work as now organized, at least $900,000. This would relieve the Institution of the harassing task of raising money for current expenses by incessant personal solicitation. Appealing to its record of over fifty years completed, Atlanta University asks for sufficient endowment to maintain the work at a high grade of usefulness and to meet the opening opportunities of the future.

Until such endowment is secured the Institution is wholly dependent upon annual donations from the benevolent public. For many years the Trustees of the John F. Slater Fund have helped the work, their present appropriation amounting to $1,350. The appropriation of the Phelps-Stokes Fund is this year $500. In addition to the payments of the students, $37,000 is needed annually.
Letters should be directed in care of Atlanta University, Atlanta, Ga. Students who do not board at their homes are not allowed to board out of the Institution, unless by special permission.

All students should have bibles; and should be furnished with all prescribed textbooks at the time when the use of them begins.

The Institution encourages the customary student organizations. Among them are the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the orchestra, two glee clubs, science and dramatic clubs, and the debating union.

Keeping or using firearms on the premises is forbidden.

Especial attention is called to the rule prohibiting the use of all intoxicating drinks, and tobacco in every form.

It is desired to make the school, as far as possible, a home for those who attend. Not only their intellectual, but also their physical, social, moral and religious culture receives careful attention.

The proper observance of Sunday is most important for the moral and religious welfare of the students. This Institution is the result of benevolent efforts, and that it be decidedly religious in its influence, without being sectarian, is the reasonable expectation of its friends. Boarding pupils are therefore required to attend stated religious services. Students should arrange so as not to travel on Sunday, and friends are earnestly requested not to call upon them on that day.

Boarders are expected to furnish their own towels, napkins, clothes bags, sheets, pillow cases, bed spread, a blanket or a comfortable; and also a knife, fork, and spoon, since silver is not to be taken from the dining room if a student is unable to be present at meals.

Dress Regulations for Young Women.—An effort has been made, in establishing these regulations, to have them natural, and such as are appropriate for young women in an institution of this character. A printed copy of these rules is sent to all young women who are admitted as students, and will be sent to any others upon application.

PRINTING OFFICE

This catalogue was printed in the Atlanta University Printing Office, where we also print and bind the other issues of the Bulletin, and a quarterly for the Alumni, The Crimson and Gray. Job work is also done.

The office is equipped with one Colt’s Armory press 14x22, one Colt’s press 10x15, a 33-inch Seybold power paper cutter, a Morrison power stitching machine, Chandler & Price proof press 10x31, 80 fonts of job type, 1,500 pounds of body type, one Kaufman stone 40x80, one Polhemus and three Tracy steel-run cabinets, and electric power to operate the machinery.
The third summer session of Atlanta University continued from June 8 through July 30, 1926. By the use of two thirds of each Saturday, except July 4, this session was equivalent to one half of a semester. The fourth session will follow the same method as the third, being held from June 7 through July 29, 1927.

The faculty during the session of 1926 was as follows:

- George K. Howe, Director: Mathematics.
- Edgar H. Webster: Education; Astronomy.
- Miss Clara E. Emerson: English.
- Ernest M. Wollank: Foreign Languages.
- Mrs. Lucile Mack Strong: History; Civics.
- Hersey H. Strong: Sociology; History.
- George L. Griswold (Clark University): Finance.
- Laurence R. Harper: Mathematics; Civics.
- Almanus Crosby: Mathematics.
- Frank E. Smith (Morris Brown University): Education.
- Emilio A. Lanier: English.

THE GRADUATES

Over fifty years of experience have fully justified Atlanta University's faith in the value of advanced training for promising young men and women of the Negro race. A large majority of its graduates and a host of the non-graduates are engaged in useful occupations among their people. Many are in positions of exceptional responsibility and influence.
